

d<sub>2</sub>w NEWS from Argentina

It is now public!!!

Wal-Mart's oxo-biodegradable bags are now a fact. Today it was made public that Wal-Mart has started giving out oxo-biodegradable bags in all their stores.

Please find attached a picture taken from the biggest Wal-Mart store in the City of Buenos Aires.

In Wal-Mart's web page you will see a press release that informs about the incorporation of oxo-biodegradable bags in all their stores around the country. (<http://www.wal-mart.com.ar/bolsa.asp?id=759>).

The media have also given a lot of attention to this release:

Diario Uno of the Province of Mendoza published an article informing about the release as well as a short explanation of how the oxo-biodegradable technology works. You can find the article in the following link: <http://www.diariouno.net.ar/2007/06/01/nota148989.html>

This afternoon a radio interview will take place on Radio Nihuil

All this news has created a lot of media attention in Argentina.
